TER Committee of Eleven which was selected by the committee of five, met in the parlor at Priest's hotel last night for the purpose of selecting one candidate for each of the nine city offices, to be voted for by the temperance people at the coming city election. Representatives of the press on learning that they would not be permitted to enter the parlor with the committee and thus secure a report of the proceedings, lingered about and waited to learn what was done; but those who came down into the rotunds from the room above were solemn and non-communicative, so much so that nothing reliable could be wrung from them. One did state that the committee had not yet completed its work, and probably would not before would be lifted and then the names of the chosen ones, accompanied by an address, would be published. The several members of the committee fully realize that their action is one of no small importance and they will go slow, but sure, in the performance of the duty assigned them. An anxious public is impatiently waiting | will permit. Below we give the names of to hear the choice of the committee.

Miss Manei, ALEXANDER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Alexander, was "aweet sixteen" yesterday, and last evening this important anniversary in her happy life was celebrated in a becoming manner by eight couples of the B. A. D. Club, who completely surprised their friend and companion. The principal feature of the evening at Miss Mabel's home on West North street, was dancing Mrs. P. Loeb and Mrs. J. D. Shuffer. THERE are 35 inmates of the county to music furnished by Prof. Wilhelmy's orchestra, with F. Batteiger as prompter. Splendid refreshments were served party fashlon.

Evening-The Prizes-Go To-Might. The sudden and unexpected change in the weather on yesterday afternoon made it exceedingly difficult and even hazardous for pedestrians to get about last night; and yet, notwithstanding this fact, there was a pretty fair attendance at the opening of the firemen's fair and festival at the tabernacie, and all who came were well repaid for their presence, because one and all received a hearty welcome from the ladies in charge and had a good time in a social way. The Decatur Band, in full uniform, were present, and filled Saturday next, when the veil of secrecy the spacious room with superior music, of a task as it was three or four hours while the guests promenaded about the hall, inspected the prizes, conversed with each other, and liberally patronized the tables. In our issue of vesterday there applaced an announcement of the sudden death, at Normal, Illinois, of Miss Mary A. Fuller, who was a valued teacher in the second ward school of this city for six yearsfrom 1864 to 1870. She was well known to a large number of our readers. In the Bioomington Pantagraph of the 17th inst. appeared the following additional particulars of her death.
